

THINGS LEFT TO EAT.

Thank goodness there is left to us
Some things for daily use.
Although the stockyards exposes
Are flying fast and loose.

The fence stake still is just as good
As ever it was before,
And pigs of lead or iron remain
As they have been of yore.

The tailor's goose is not proscribed
As dangerous to eat,
And we are glad the car hog is
As yet not potted meat.

The jackass and the muttonhead,
The lobster and the clam,
Are just as easy as they were
Before the Sinclair dam.

The mule that spinners use is safe,
The donkey on the ship,
And eke the clotheshorse have escaped
The sausage-cutter's nip.

The chops of ax and hatchef stand,
The bulls the Irish make,
The steer which guides the boat aright
Are spared the mucker's rake.

We're pleased to note we still have got
The same old Wall street lamb,
And thus far we have seen no sale
Of canned hydraulic ram.

Thank goodness there is left to us
Some memories still sweet;
And in a sense of justice done
We murmur, "It is meet."

the regulation under which patrons of rural free mail routes are compelled to purchase boxes from one of the 200 listed manufacturers, who have put on the market 300 different styles of boxes, approved by the Department, costing from 50 cents to $4 each. Patrons of rural routes will be permitted to construct their own boxes provided that in doing so they conform

Paris Traction Company

At a meeting of the stockholders held in the office of the Company in this city at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, all matters pertaining to the proposed road were gone over carefully.

The different plans for raising the money for the construction of the road were discussed in detail. It was the unanimous decision of all the stockholders present that the matter shall be pushed from this on, and that capable men be employed for the purpose of canvassing along the entire route.

A very hopeful spirit was manifested by all present and a determination to do all that is possible in order that the road may be built in the near future.

It will require the co-operation and subscriptions for stock along the entire line in order to build the road. Reports from all points touched by it indicate that a spirit of liberality is being manifested.

A meeting of the Directory will be held in this city within the next two weeks, when plans

In a witty speech at the reception by Ambassador REID in London Mr. WILLIAM J. BRYAN is said to have said—

"I am proud of the progress my country has made while walking on one leg, and wonder what it would have done if it had been walking on two legs."

This, of course, refers to Mr. BRYAN's advocacy of the "double standard"—Gold and Silver;—but the fact remains that the country's progress is due to the fact that it has been walking on the Gold Leg, the very leg that Mr. BRYAN said it could not stand on!

JAMES B. REYNOLDS of Boston has been Assistant Secretary of the United States Treasury for fifteen months, and in that time has signed his name somewhere close to 100,000 times. His signature is of a rather fanciful character and consequently he uses ink by the gallon. As a rule he uses up three fountain pens in a day. During a hot spell of weather at one time 12,000 Indian warrants came in. They had to be signed. The other Assistant Secretaries were on their vacations and "JIMMIE" signed them, the whole 12,000. He lost 21 pounds and soured his disposition.

Bishop Kemper of Kansas was the victim of a hold-up one night when he was the only passenger. The driver told the road agent, who had covered him with a six-shooter, that his only passenger was a Bishop.

"Well," said the robber, "wake up the old man. I want to go through his pockets."

When the Bishop was aroused from a sound slumber and realized the situation he gently remonstrated with the man behind the gun. He said:

"Surely you would not rob a poor Bishop. I have no money worth your while, and I am engaged in the discharge of my sacred duties."

"Did you say you were a Bishop?" asked the road agent.

"Yes; just a poor Bishop."

"What Church?"

"The Episcopal Church."

"The hell you are! Why, that's the Church I belong to. Driver, you may pass on."

Many of the curiosity shops planted in the back streets of most country towns in England are kept up by large London firms, who, from a prolonged study of human nature, have discovered that people who are shy of buying old furniture or old silver in Bond street or Piccadilly are ready and eager purchasers of precisely the same objects at a rather higher price when they come upon them in the back streets of a country town.

Cold Soda for Warm Folks

Greenland's icy mountains are not colder than our Soda. It is as cold as it can be and be soda; a few degrees colder and it would be ice. That's why it cools warm folks off so rapidly; that's why it's the coldest soda in the county. Coldness is not its only merit though. It's as satisfactory for its flavor as it is for its cooling quality.

ROBERTS—CRISSMAN.

The marriage of Mr. Charles David Roberts and Miss Augusta Belle Crissman was solemnized last evening at 8:30 at the splendid and beautiful home of the Crissmans, corner Eighth and Washington streets, Manchester, O.

The ceremony was said by Rev. M. W. Simpson of the Presbyterian Church, to which denomination the family are rigid adherents.

The home is superbly arranged—commodious, elegant, and upon a natural lawn amid grand forest trees and with every convenience and luxury.

The salon parlor was the scene of the marriage vows, and the decorations were elaborate in white and green. The bridal party were in the bay window alcove, and the huge bell was of smilax, ferns and daisies, with the taper of electric light.

The music room was in red and green; the library in pink, and the dining-room in pink and white, with the bride's table in the center, artistic in its dress of smilax, sweet peas, candles and electric lights. The whole home was a glowing, beautiful pink, because every electric bulb wore a hood of pink chiffon.

The bride is a domestic, vivacious, educated and lovely girl. Her bridal robe was a most splendid creation made by Dunlevy. It was hand embroidered, with train, high in the neck and elbow sleeves. She wore gloves to her elbows, carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas, her mother's bridal fan, and the softest veil of tulle, caught at the top with a crown of lilies of the valley. She wore a pendant of pearls and opals, the gift of the groom. Her beautiful hair was done in low coiffure, and with the piercing eyes her appearance as a bride showed a beautiful woman about to resign her future into the care of our fellow-townsmen, who is as popular away from home as at it. He looked distinguished in full evening dress and his happiness was accentuated by that increased smile and glowing cheek, for which traits he is gifted.

The presents were splendid and in keeping with the occasion.

The bride was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Carl Crissman, the groom by Mr. Carl Crissman, and the father bore his bride to the altar.

The wedding journey was begun this morning and will continue for three weeks at Cheyenne, Wyo., and afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Roberts will come home to dear old Maysville.

Among those in attendance from here were—J. H. Dodson and wife, I. Langefels and wife, Ira Newell and wife, T. M. Russell and wife, J. C. Smith and wife, Mrs. Agnes Blaisdell, Mrs. Fannie McDaniel, Mrs. Dr. Ishmael, Mrs. Lizzie Power, Mrs. Harry Ort.

APPALLING RECORD OF ASSASSINATIONS IN RUSSIA DURING THE PAST TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

The assassination of Vice-Admiral Kuzmich is but a continuation of the reign of terror which has long overspread Russia. The following assassinations or attempts at assassinations over the past twenty-five years show the terrible nature of the campaign against Russian officials and royalty—

General De Mesentzoff, Chief of Police, assassinated in streets of St. Petersburg, August 16th, 1878.

Prince Demetrius Krapotkin, Governor of Kharkoff, assassinated while returning from a ball, February 22d, 1879.

Attempted assassination of the Czar, Alexander II., by undermining a railway train near Moscow, December 1st, 1878.

Explosion of dynamite and gun cotton under the dining-room of the Winter Palace, St. Petersburg, a few minutes before the advent of the Czar and his family, February 17th, 1880.

Alexander II. killed by explosion of a bomb, March 13th, 1881.

General Strelnikoff, public prosecutor, assassinated at Odessa by two students, March 30th, 1882.

Lieutenant Sudeikin, Chief of Secret Police, and his nephew, M. Sadovsky, assassinated at St. Petersburg, December 28th, 1883.

Captain Solotouchine, Chief of Moscow's Secret Police, assassinated by female nihilist, January 27th, 1901.

M. Bogolopoff, Minister of Public Instruction, mortally wounded in St. Petersburg, February 27th, 1901.

M. Pobiedonostzeff shot at, March, 1901.

M. Sipiaguine, Minister of Interior, assassinated in St. Petersburg, April 15th, 1902.

General Bogdanovitch, Governor of Ufa, assassinated May 19th, 1903.

Murderous attack on Prince Galitzin, Governor General of the Caucasus, October 27th, 1903.

General Bobrikoff, Governor General of Finland, fatally shot, June 16th, 1904.

M. Plehve, Minister of the Interior, killed by a bomb in St. Petersburg, July 28th, 1904.

Grand Duke Sergius killed by a bomb thrown under his carriage at Moscow, February 17th, 1905.

Chief of Police of Moscow shot by unknown man, July 11th, 1905.

General Dragomiroff fatally shot, October 27th, 1905.

The above data only refers to prominent persons, the number of minor officials assaulted having been legion.

Constantinople has six different sources of water supply. Some of these are dangerous, but the fountains constructed by the present Sultan made it possible for even the poorest to get pure water at any time.

Sir Harry Johnson, the famous explorer, once escaped from a tight corner in Africa when surrounded by two score of murderous natives. He sent out an envoy, a wretched looking albino, who declared that there was smallpox in camp. The natives fled, fearing smallpox worse than Maxims.

In the Hargis-Callahan trial at Beattyville yesterday the defense received a severe blow in the testimony of Asbury Spicer relative to the plots to kill Marcum. Spicer said he received two offers from Jim Hargis to kill Marcum, and did go after Curt Jett the morning he was killed. Witness said Hargis and Callahan sent word to Jett to hurry to the courthouse. Hargis asked witness to conceal himself in an old house near Marcum's home and shoot him as he passed. Jett has "gone back" on his confession, and now swears he alone killed Marcum.

The regular meeting of Mason County Medical Society was in session at City Hall yesterday from 2 to 4 o'clock p. m. with following members present: Drs. T. E. Pickett, A. G. Browning, J. J. Cook, J. A. Reed, J. H. Samuel, S. R. Harover, L. Brand, P. G. Smoot, J. B. Taulbee and W. H. Taulbee. The proceedings were made very interesting and entertaining by the presence of Dr. J. E. Wells of Cynthiana, Councillor for this District, who delivered a very entertaining and instructive address. The Society is in splendid working order and all legal practitioners of the county are urged to become members.

HELD CONSTITUTIONAL

First Attack Made on the Croan Dog Tax Law

The first test case of the celebrated Croan Dog Tax Law, which was enacted by the last Legislature, came in the Franklin County Court Tuesday, Judge J. H. Polsgrove holding that it is constitutional.

The judgment will be appealed to the Circuit Court.

Attorney Andrew Scott, acting for John Clarke, a farmer, raised the question of its constitutionality.

Clarke was charged with harboring a sheep-killing dog which he refused to allow to be killed. He was fined $25, but the fine will be held in abeyance until the case is carried through the higher tribunals.

The new regulations in the British Army that "no relaxation of the eyesight test can ever be allowed" is regarded as marking the disappearance of the eyeglass among the officers.

Howe, the inventor of the sewing machine, sold his patent rights for a passage to England. He was a mill hand when his machine was putting millions in the pockets of other men.

Captain Alfred Dreyfus, in pleading before the French tribunal for restitution of reputation, renounced all claim for damages on account of judicial mistreatment, saying he wanted only his good name back.

The steel floating dry dock Dewey, in tow of the colliers Glacier, Brutus and Caesar, and the tug Wompatuck, all under command of Commander Harry H. Hosley, U. S. N., is due to reach Manila, July 12th, when she will have covered a distance of something like 12,000 miles.

It is reported from Dresden that Germany will witness a public auction that is probably unique. The house of Eisenbach, in which Martin Luther lived from 1498 to 1501, being then a youth of from fifteen to eighteen, is to be offered for sale, together with all the historical objects and documents associated with Luther and his period which it contains.

Spanish bull-fighters average $5,000 a year. Stars sometimes get $5,000 a performance.

It is said that intimations are being sent out by some of the strong railway lines that in future there must be no trifling on the part of their agents with fixed schedules of rates.

Mrs. Anderson Crawford was assaulted by an unknown Negro at her home in Ford, Ky., Tuesday. She fired two shots at her assailant as he ran away. Mrs. Crawford is in a critical condition.

Miss Gaston of Chicago, head of the American Anti-Cigarette League, has gone to Indiana to start a crusade for the enforcement of the law in that state relative to the sale of cigarettes to minors.

Plans have been completed for the organization of a $1,000,000 company to build and operate nine fast steel steamers on the Mississippi river between St. Louis and New Orleans and St. Louis and St. Paul.

Just 1,062,054 immigrants entered this country through the Ellis Island (N. Y.) Station for the year ending June 30th last, an increase of 199,075 over last year. The largest number came from Southern Italy, 222,606. The Hebrews were second, with 125,000. The immigrants brought with them a total of $19,000,000.

Our Drink Bill

CINCINNATI TIMES-STAR.

It has been the custom of The American Grocer to yearly translate for the public the Government excise statistics into current retail prices, and thus determine the amount actually spent by the American people for beverages, both alcoholic and non-alcoholic. The figures for 1905, just completed, show that we spent for beverages $1,548,700,307, as against $1,498,622,715 in 1904, $1,451,633,379 in 1903, $1,369,098,276 in 1902 and $1,273,212,386 in 1901. The total drink bill today, as the compiler states, is "one-fourth of the total estimated production of the cotton, wheat, corn, hay and tobacco crops, and every other product of farms, orchards, cattle ranches, dairies and every other agricultural industry. It amounts to one-eighth of the Nation's total expenditure for food." Of this aggregate $223,269,233, or not one-sixth, is for coffee, tea and cocoa, the non-alcoholic beverages.

It is found, upon comparing the per capita consumption of liquors in 1905 with that for 1840, that a tremendous change has taken place in the relative proportion of alcoholic beverages consumed. Here are the figures in gallons per capita:

	Wines.	Malt Distilled liquors.	Spirits.	Total.
1840	29	1.30	2.52	4.17
1905	43	18.50	1.45	30.38

That is, in sixty-five years, the average American has increased his allowance of beer fourteen times, and learned to drink half as much again of wine, but at the same time cut off three-sevenths of his consumption of whisky. Only one of these changes, however, has been at all steady. The consumption of wine, as shown by the official statistics, has been wholly erratic, ranging as high as .63 gallon in 1902 and as low as .26 in 1896. The individual consumption of whisky and other spirits showed an irregular decline until it reached its minimum of 1.01 gallon, also in 1896, after which it mounted again steadily for eight years to 1.48 gallon in 1904, and only this year has the increase ceased and a slight decline been indicated. But the increase of beer-drinking has been as steady and seemingly inevitable as that of population. From 1863 to the current year there have been only six years in which setbacks of even a fraction of a gallon occurred.

The average expenditure for alcoholic drinks for liquors in 1905 was $93.15 for each family of five, an interesting fact when it is compared with the statement of the Bureau of Labor that the annual earning capacity of the American family was $749.

When Lord Dufferin was Viceroy of India he received a novel paper knife from the Maharajah Holkar of Indore, as a return gift of an ivory paper cutter given to him in England. The Viceroy introduced a fine young elephant into the room. A pile of newspapers lay at Lord Dufferin's side; the animal went up to them, cut them neatly with his tusks which had been purposely sharpened and laid them in a neat heap on the floor ready for perusal.

The deck-hand trouble is bothering the operators of boats along the lower rivers again.

The new Greene Line packet Courier will be rebuilt by the Gardner Dock Company of Point Pleasant, they being the lowest of the several bidders for the job. Captain Greene will make several improvements to his line of boats. The Courier has been a great money maker in the Maysville and Cincinnati trade.

The Supervising Inspectors recently changed the signal code. Formerly pilots were to give one signal as an indication that the lower boat would pass to the right; two signals that it would pass to the left. The order has now been reversed, and pilots are complaining that they cannot become accustomed to the new order.

Thirty-thousand bales of cotton ties lie in eight feet of water near Bay City, thirty miles above Paducah in the Ohio, where the towboat Wash Honshell of Cincinnati, bound from Pittsburgh South, lost a model barge and all its cargo. The accident was due to the bottom falling out of the barge, which was extraordinarily heavily laden. The barge and cargo were valued at $43,000, partially insured.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Campmeeting is now in full blast. Late Boyd is home from Troy, Ill. Hay and oats harvest here this week. William H. Garrett of Manchester attended the G. A. R. meeting here Saturday. Rev. Marshall Gray and wife of Marietta, O., attended campmeeting here Sunday. Ellis Kayata, one of our merchants, has gone to sweet Kinnickinnick to recuperate his health. Why not the L. C. B. A. reorganize under the new act of the Legislature and continue in business? A little daughter of Esquire Higgins is very ill with some stomach trouble and not expected to recover. Miss Minnie Means of Maysville and Miss Robina Pollitt of Vanceburg are attending the Park meeting here. Misses Daisy Sutton and Martha Best of the Wilmore (Ky.) Bible School attended Campmeeting here Sunday. Miss Best left for home Monday. There don't seem to be very many Old Settlers attend and take part in the annual reunion of Old Settlers at Ruggles Campground. In days to come that annual reunion may become more interesting to the old, and of course the young will make it interesting to all if we are to judge by the young ladies' flag drill and similar rehearsals that may take place there in the future.

WORK THAT TELLS.

Plenty of It Has Been Done Right Here in Maysville.

Cures that last are cures that tell. To thoroughly know the virtues of a medicine you must investigate the cures and see if they prove permanent. Doan's Kidney Pills stand this test, and plenty of proof exists right here in Maysville. People who testified years ago to relief from backache, kidney and urinary disorders, now declare that relief was permanent and the cure perfect. How can any Maysville sufferer longer doubt the evidence?

C. L. Hubbard, employed in Cablish's grocery, Cox Building, and living at 325 West Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"As I stated in a testimonial given in 1900, Doan's Kidney Pills brought me positive relief from inflammation of the bladder and a disturbed action of the kidneys. After some time I felt a slight return of the trouble but again used Doan's Kidney Pills and again found complete relief. Now, after nearly five years I feel able to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills with even greater confidence than before. The results of its use in my case have been very satisfactory. I got the remedy at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drug-store."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
